

Nonchalant Bombasi-tea with Camellia Cha

3:30pm—5:30pm
Saturday, August 20, 2011
High Tea will be served

Raise your teaCups, charge your glasses and be prepared to be whisked away to a world of absurdi-tea, frivoli-tea and above all, Creative-tea. The enigmatic Camellia Cha is coming to Perth to perform her novel-tea one-woman show Nonchalant Bombasi-tea.

Performer, musician, and author, Anne Norman has created her alter ego Camellia Cha, who will excite the senses and broaden the mind as she blends a heady brew of musicali-tea, hilari-tea and reflectivi-tea into her show. Her musical talent is the perfect accompaniment for her prowess in the spoken word and her ability to weave unusual and unheard of tales of her exploration of tea throughout Japan, China, and India is guaranteed to keep you wanting more.

For only $20 you can satisfy your Curiosi-tea, taste a range of teas from Green Tea House and indulge in a Varie-tea of traditional Japanese sweets.

To secure your position at this tea party to end all tea parties, call Hyogo Cultural Centre on 9385 9002 or email hyogoprogram@iinet.net.au.

Be sure to get in quick before the tea goes cold!

To find out more about Camellia Cha, read the rave reviews about her show, or just get yourself in the mood for a spot of tea, visit www.camelliacha.com

Hyogo Prefectural Government
Cultural Centre

20 Kalinda Drive City Beach WA 6015

Tel: 9385 9002

Fax: 9385 9005

www.hyogo.com.au

